

Section 6: Attendance and Punctuality

All team members are expected to be at their assigned station, ready to work, at their scheduled start time.

A team member who clocks in more than five minutes after scheduled start is recorded as tardy. Three tardies within a rolling 90-day period will result in a documented corrective action conversation with the shift supervisor.

Exceptions may be made for documented emergencies at the discretion of the Warehouse Supervisor.