

[Photo taken on a personal phone of the printed HR response memo, kept for personal records.]

Continuous data entry is an essential function of the Escrow Assistant role as written, and we are not in a position to remove the scanning batch from the role or to fund special equipment at this time.